

Terra Foundation for American Art Travel Grants

The Terra Foundation for American Art is offering, in partnership with The Courtauld Institute of Art, London, the Institut National d'Histoire de l'Art, Paris, the John F. Kennedy Institut für Nordamerikastudien, Freie Universität, Berlin, and the Zentralinstitut für Kunstgeschichte, Munich, six travel grants for researchers whose research project concerns American art or transatlantic artistic relations prior to 1980. Nationals of all European countries can apply for these grants according to their level of study.

- Three grants of US$5,000 each will be offered to researchers at doctoral level.
- Three grants of US$7,500 each will be offered to postdoctoral researchers who have been awarded their doctorate within the past ten years.

Applications must be sent to either The Courtauld Institute of Art, the Institut National d'Histoire de l'Art, the John F. Kennedy Institut für Nordamerikastudien or the Zentralinstitut für Kunstgeschichte, and must include

- An official Terra Foundation Travel Grant application form*
- The applicant's curriculum vitae
- A description of the applicant's research project demonstrating the need for a sojourn in the United States of America
- Two letters of recommendation. (For doctoral candidates, one of these letters should be by the dissertation advisor.)

All documents must be written in English.

Pre-selection of candidates will be undertaken by each of the four institutions named above and will be followed by a final selection in March 2010 by a five-member international jury. Selection results will be published in April 2010.

Applications made through Zentralinstitut für Kunstgeschichte should be sent to:

Dr. Christian Fuhrmeister
Zentralinstitut für Kunstgeschichte
Meiserstr. 10
80333 München
E-mail: C.Fuhrmeister@zikg.eu

The deadline for all applications is fixed at 15 January 2010.
